

Pitted Cherries

In Pitted Cherries we specialise in creating company image. We run campaigns aimed at increasing brand awareness, build trust and, in result, growth in sales. We prepare strategies for reaching customers with the use of appropriate marketing tools. We combine competencies of Social Media and PR agency. What distinguish us most is the advisory business nature of cooperating between the agency and the Client.

Place of work: Koluszki, near Łódź

Region: Łódź

Are you a creative person? Do you love social media and a day without Facebook and Instagram is a lost day for you? Do you want to learn secrets of content marketing from the inside? Apply!

Your main duties would be:

- creating content for social media platforms
- participating in brainstorming
- contributing in creating marketing ideas
- preparing presentations, offers, reports
- searching for new possibilities of building a brand on the Internet

Requirements:

- open and creative approach
- thorough knowledge of social media and trends occurring there
- clear communication
- high sense of responsibility for assigned tasks
- engaging in work and initiative

We offer:

- internship from 8 to 12 weeks
- possibility of extending cooperation
- we think differently, work differently and we treat development differently – internally, personally
- we teach you how to be proactive, efficient, how to think with solutions
- we teach you competences unavailable in any courses
- learning marketing from the inside – from an idea to its execution
- and for sure, we offer challenges ;)

Recruitment process:

- Interested people are asked to send their CV
- Task to fulfil
- Recruitment interview on Skype with Strategy Director